A WORD From the Editors

Living in our "space age" prompted us to present a source book of our school year 1961-1962 --- to which we may constantly refer in order to bring back old memories --- as William Campbell High School rockets into ----- the future.

DEDICATED TO . . .

Mrs. Nancy Minix

The Senior Class of 1961 - 1962 proudly dedicates this eleventh edition of THE GENERAL to Mrs. Nancy Minix, Office Secretary.

Because of her interest in us during our years at William Campbell and because of her understanding nature, we consider her our loyal friend.

William Campbell High School

Our School

William Campbell High School, an accredited five-year high school, is located on Highway 501, Naruna, Virginia. William Campbell is a consolidated school with an enrollment of 427 students from Brookneal, Gladys, and Naruna. The members of the high school faculty total 24. Mr. James E. Strickler has been principal of William Campbell since its establishment in 1951.

The school is named for William Campbell, a general who distinguished himself because of his heroism in the battle at King's Mountain during the Revolutionary War. The basketball, baseball, soccer, and track teams are known as GENERALS.

This year with the addition of a new wing, the main building has 11 regular classrooms, 3 science laboratories, a language room, a typing room, an art room, music room, projection room, guidance room, home economics department, gymnasium, library, cafeteria, and offices. The elementary school building is directly behind the high school building. The agriculture building is to the right of the main building and has a shop and several classrooms.

CLASSES

Home Economics

Classes Prepa

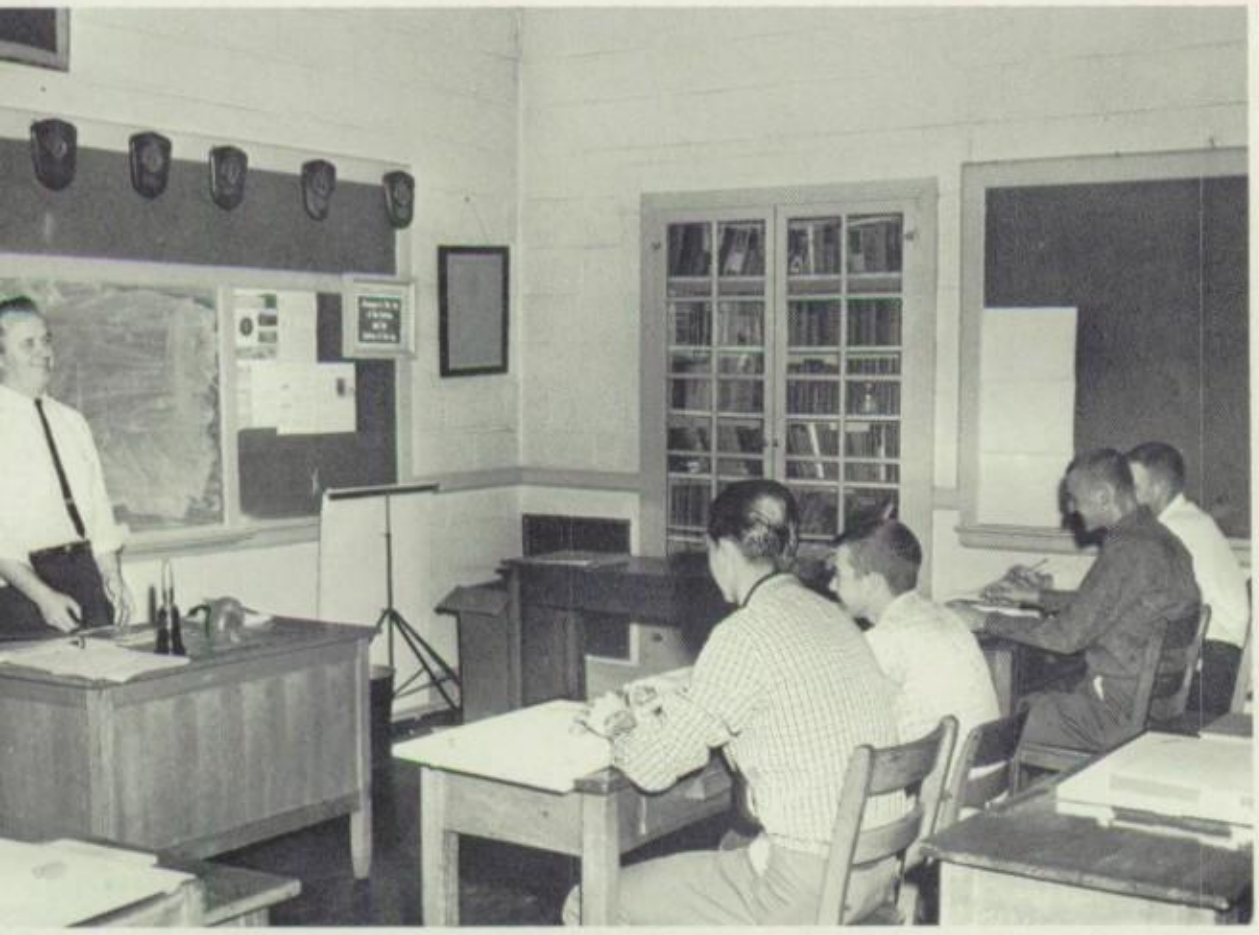
Mrs. Christine Crabtree instructs members of her class in good sewing techniques. 116 girls are enrolled in the 6 classes of home economics taught at W. C. H. S.

Mrs. Lucille Reigel demonstrates the procedures in baking a cake for her 4th year group of students.

Girls taking home economics prepare to model their handiwork in the Lynchburg--County Farm Show, held annually in October. Approximately 20 girls entered the contest.

— Agriculture For Present and Future

Mr. J. J. Riegel's Agriculture students are working on the construction of a corner cabinet.



Students are receiving class instruction in Vocational Agriculture from their teacher Mr. Dennis Riddle.

Students are making a tree planter as part of their shop work. Mr. Riegel supervises the assignment.

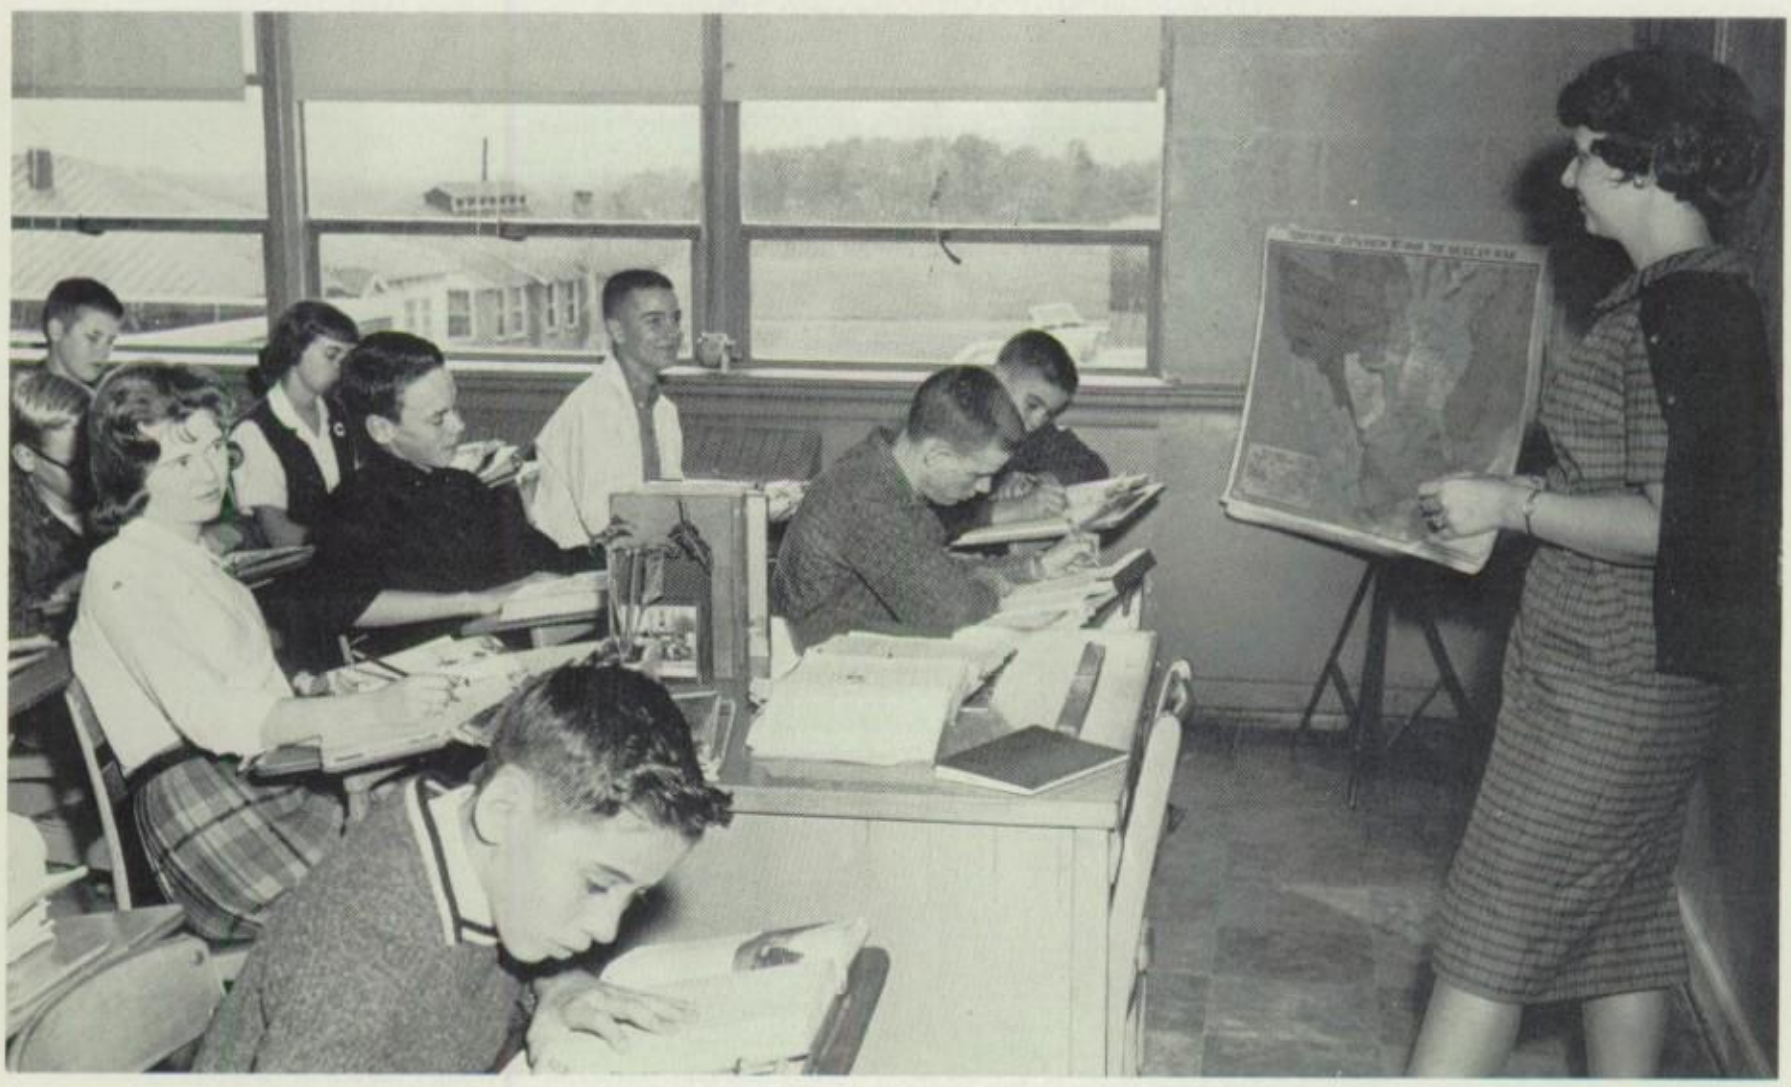
History — Social Studies Prepare Future Citizen

MRS. MARY MADDOX'S CLASS IN UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT MAKES A STUDY OF THE FEDERAL COURT SYSTEM.

There are 102 eighth graders enrolled in the 4 sections of Civics 8 taught by Mrs. Yount, Mr. Booth, Miss Waller, and Mrs. Guthrie.

Miss Waller teaches the 3 sections of American History to the juniors and Mrs. Maddox teaches 2 sections of U. S. Government to the seniors; Mr. Booth teaches one section.

MISS MARIE WALLER'S CIVICS 8 CLASS IS STUDYING THE SETTLEMENT OF THE COLONIES.



With World Knowledge — Geography

MR. WILLIAM PAYNE'S GEOGRAPHY CLASS IS STUDYING THE FUNDAMENTALS THAT DEAL WITH MAPS.

Mr. Payne teaches 2 sections of Geography to 51 students. Mr. Booth has 2 sections with 53 students. Geography is primarily a ninth grade subject.

There are 30 students enrolled in the World History Class taught by Miss Waller. This is chiefly a tenth grade subject.

MISS MARIE WALLER'S WORLD HISTORY CLASS IS MAKING A STUDY OF THE HISTORY OF FRANCE.

English — Languages Promot

MR. FRAZIER SIZEMORE'S ENGLISH 12 STUDENTS DISCUSS "COFFEE HOUSE LONDON" AND COMPARE IT WITH TWENTIETH CENTURY.

Using good grammar is emphasized in relationship to the communicative skills. Literature, correct spelling, and composition are correlated with the total phase of instruction in English. Parallel readings are assigned to promote the appreciation of good literature. Cooperating with the Virginia High School League in literary activities and forensics, the 6 faculty members teach 18 sections of English to all the students in high school.

MRS. JEAN CREWS'S NINTH GRADE ENGLISH STUDENTS ATTEMPT TO COORDINATE PREVIOUSLY LEARNED MATERIAL WITH NEW MATERIAL IN ORDER TO BRING ABOUT A BETTER GRASP OF THE ENGLISH LANGUAGE.

Communicative Skills — Latin — Spanish

There are 45 members in the 2 Latin classes taught by Mrs. Guthrie. In connection with class work they dress Roman dolls, make posters, and do dramatizations.

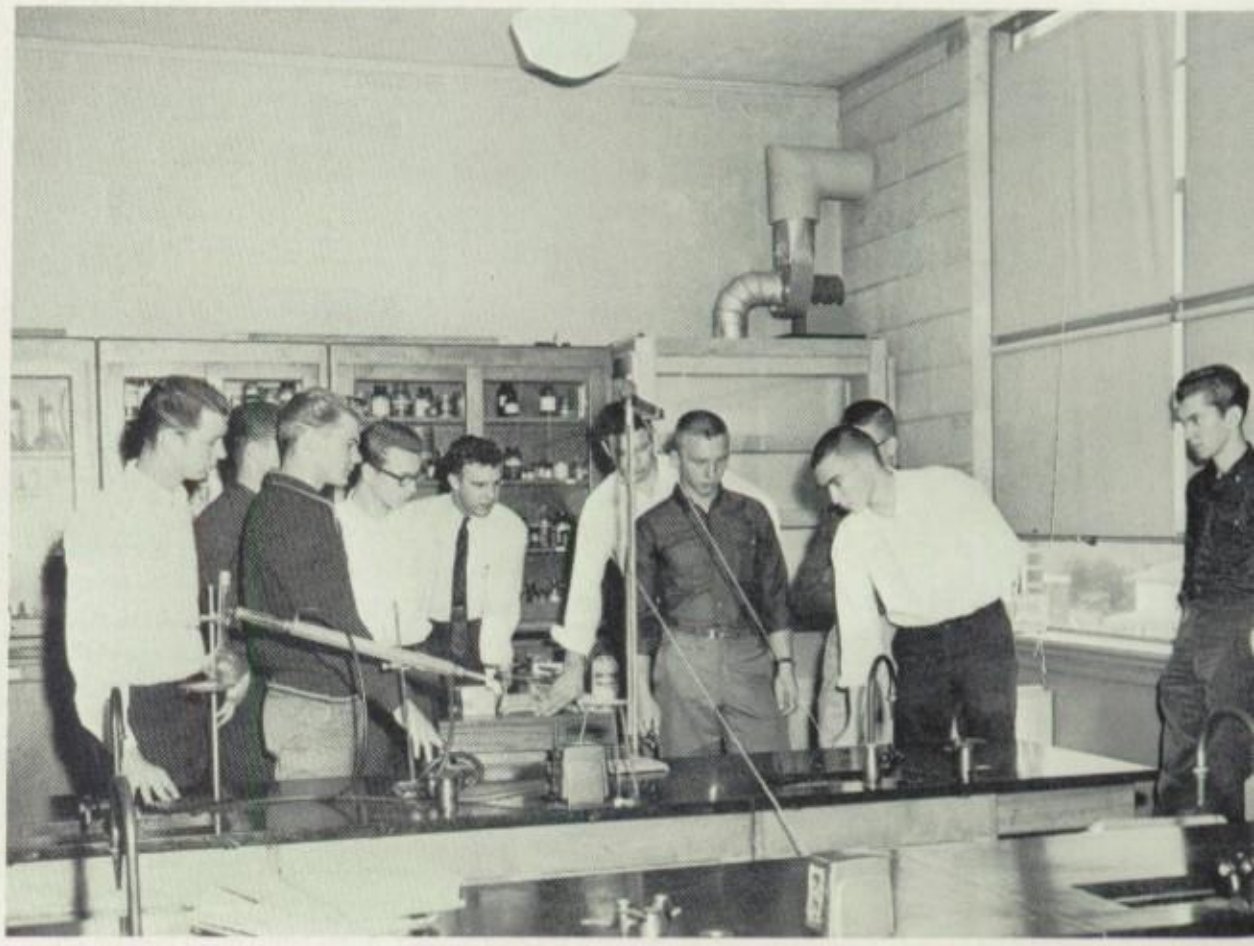
The 57 students enrolled in 3 sections of Spanish taught by Mrs. Myrtle Fore learn to speak the language as well as to read and write in Spanish. They plan to have an assembly program, a fiesta, and a banquet in the spring.

MRS. MYRTLE FORE'S SPANISH II STUDENTS TAKE DICTATION BY LISTENING THROUGH INDIVIDUAL EARPHONES.

Sciences –

Classes Prepare

Mrs. Arline Whitlow teaches 48 students in her 2 sections of biology. The class in laboratory work is making a study in anatomy.



Mr. Kenneth Booth's physics class of 12 students is observing the scientific mysteries of the pendulum in motion.

The chemistry class of 17 girls and 2 boys enjoys laboratory study. Under the direction of their teacher Mrs. Myrtle Straw they are preparing oxygen gas which they will use in various experiments.

— Mathematics

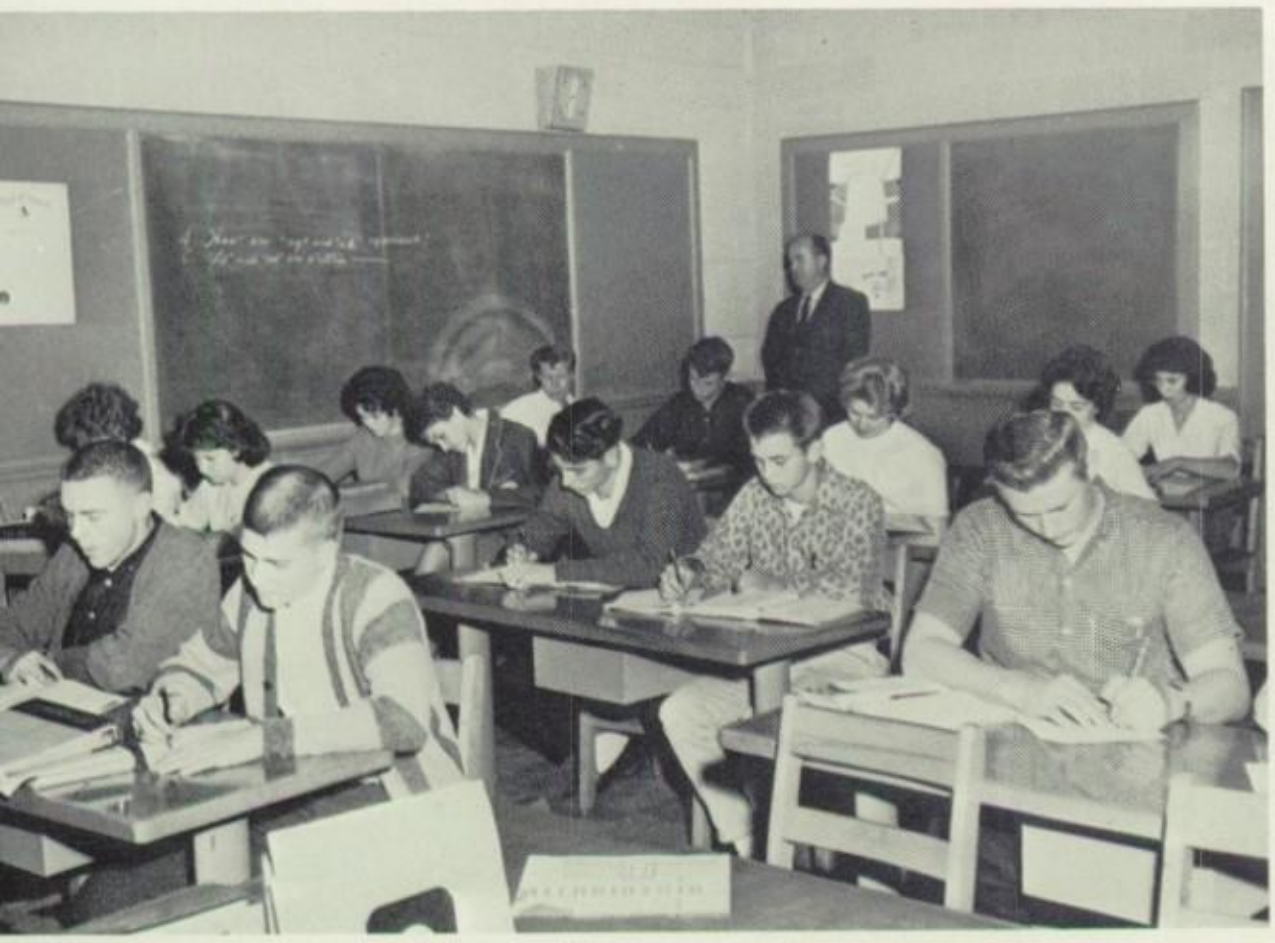
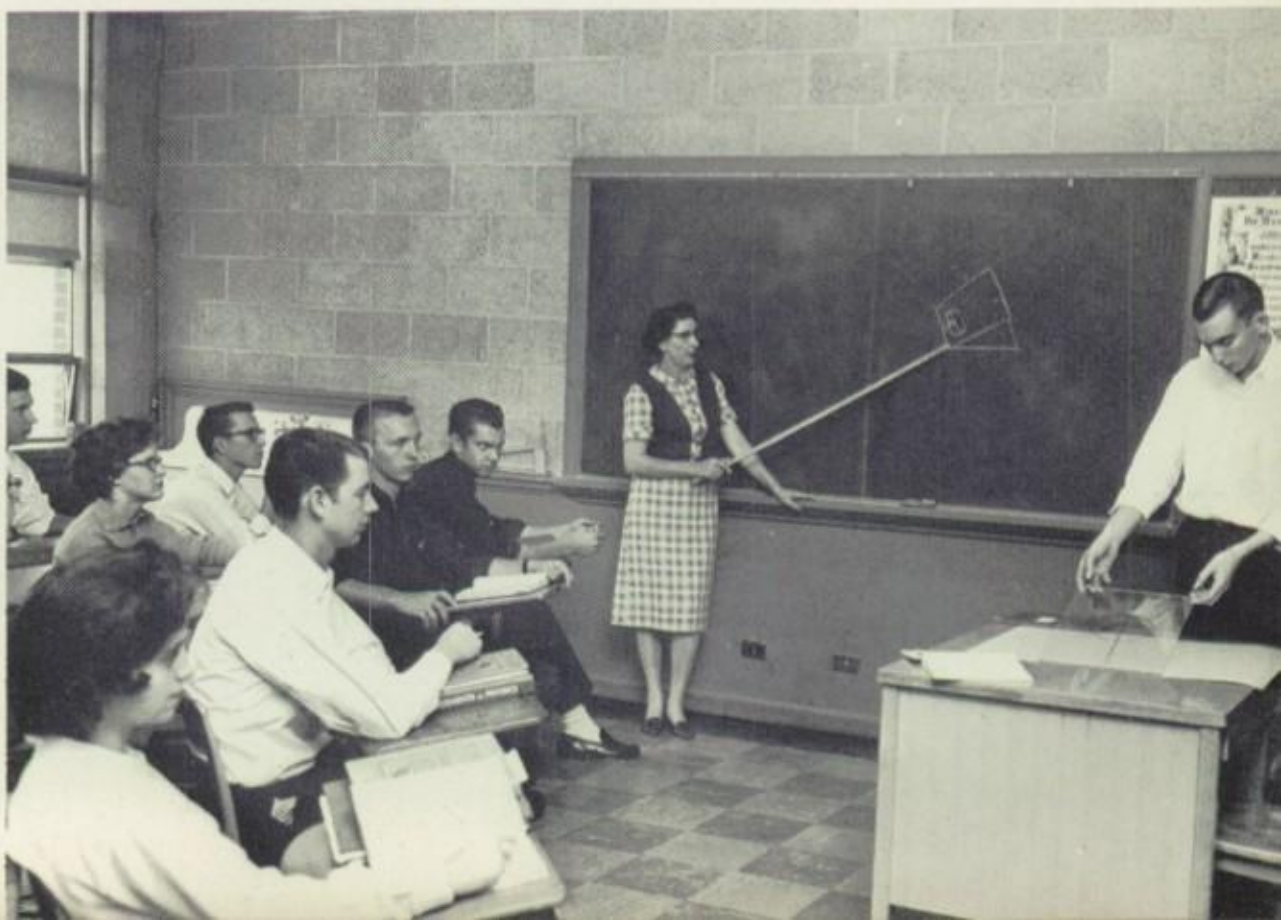
For Space Age

Mrs. Pauline Marshall's class in second year algebra is learning how to form equations from verbal problems. In addition to 2 sections of Algebra 10, she teaches a class in general mathematics, plane and solid geometry.



Mr. Edward Kell's students in general business class concentrate on the proper method of reconciling bank accounts. Mr. Kell has 2 sections of this class composed of 52 students.



Mrs. Pauline Marshall's solid geometry class experiments with the projection of lines and plane figures on another plane and observes the changes of shape and area of such figures.

Solid geometry is a college preparatory course and provides excellent applications of plane geometry, algebra, and arithmetics.

Classes Promote Appreciation for the Fine Arts

Art

Mrs. Dorothy Fore's art class students make posters for the Keep Virginia Green Poster Contest using the theme: "Water Is Useful--Plant More Trees". The 46 students in the 2 sections of art perform activities designed to promote creative expression, individual thinking, and art appreciation.

Language

Mr. Howard Hansen's English class is divided into discussion groups to read and to discuss original compositions. The students in the 3 sections of this class learn to appreciate good literature and to write creatively.

Music

Mrs. Elsie Payne Guthrie's General Music class of 19 students participate in singing a variety of songs, in studying the lives of composers, in listening to recordings, both classical and popular and in learning some of the technical musical terms so that they can better appreciate and enjoy the art of music.

Commercial Classes Prepare For The Business World

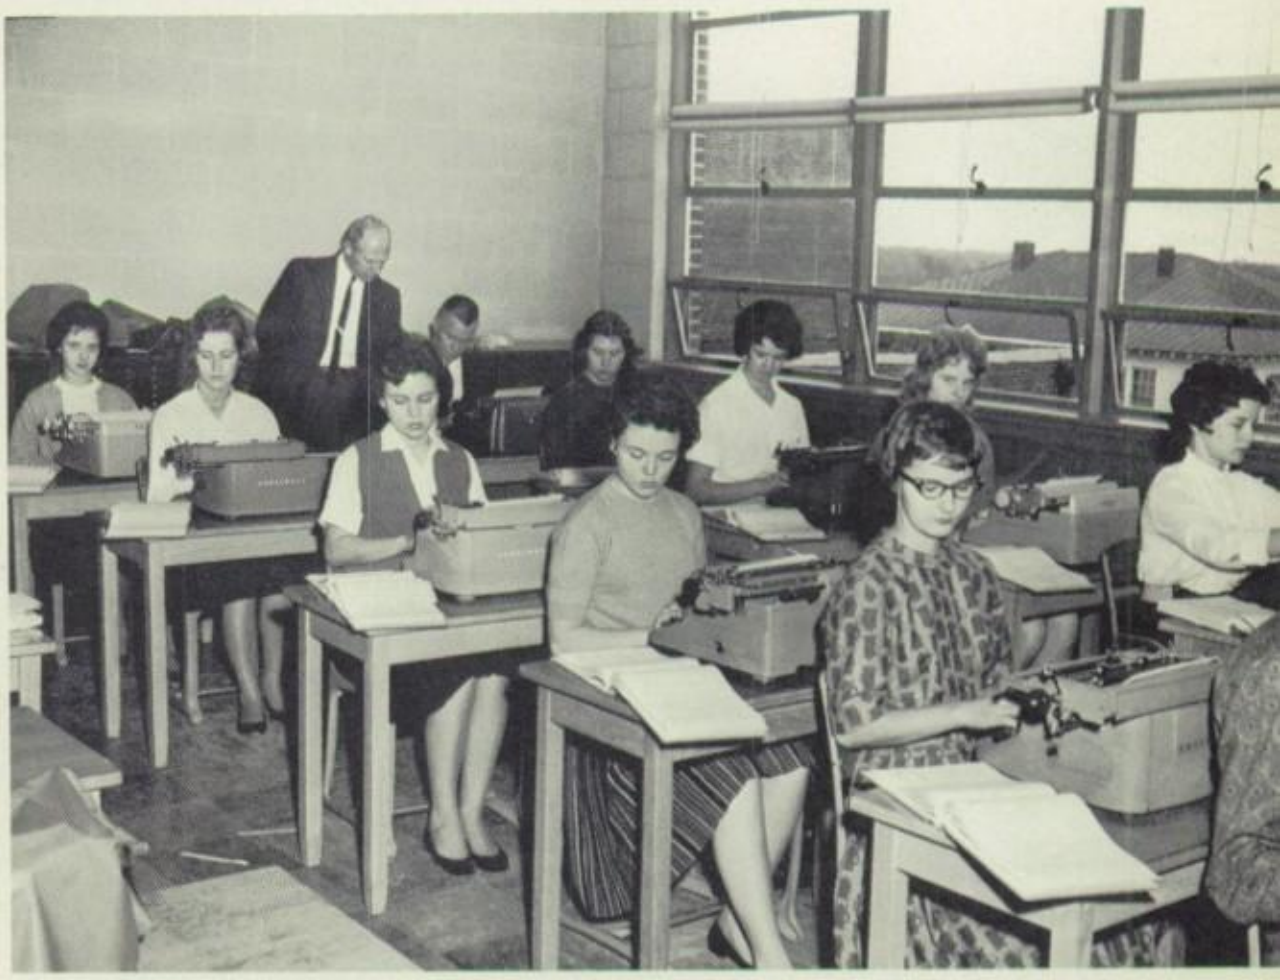
A SECTION OF THE 24 STUDENTS ENROLLED IN BOOKKEEPING I

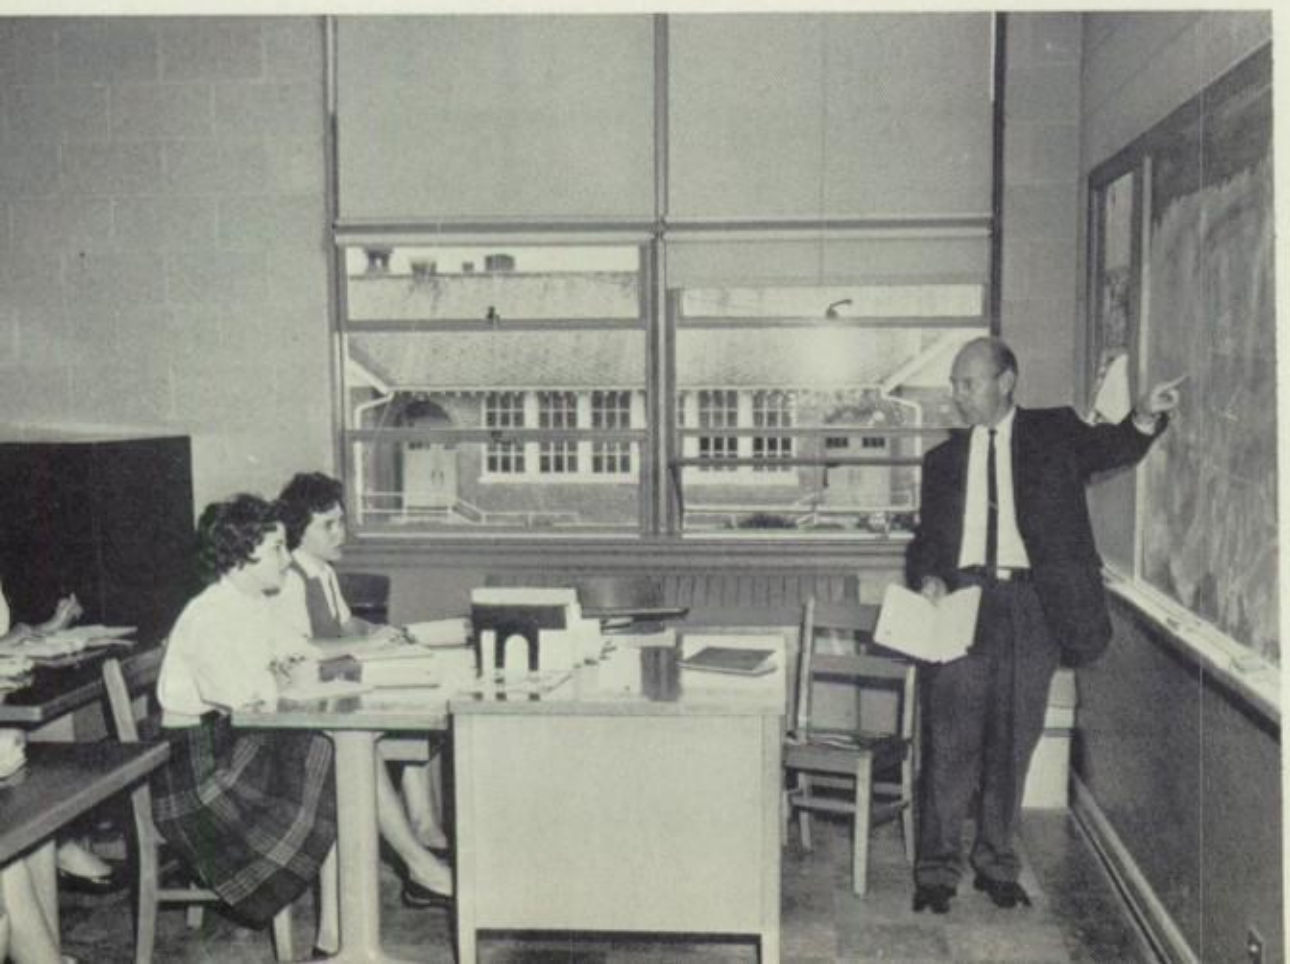
In this class students learn the principles of elementary bookkeeping and accounting. The course also includes a single proprietorship, partnerships, and an introduction to corporations. A majority of the students enrolled in this course continue their education in this field or secure employment as bookkeepers.

A TYPING II CLASS

Students enrolled in Typing II secure employment with local organizations and with the federal government as typists, clerk-typists, clerk-steno's, and stenographers.

William Campbell business education students taking the two-year course are required to attain a net speed of 60 words per minute upon graduation. This years class includes 21 typists.





A SHORTHAND THEORY CLASS

Fourteen students are enrolled in Shorthand I. They learn the Gregg Theory in preparation for dictation and transcription. Many of the Gregg students secure employment locally and others continue their training in advanced courses. The Shorthand I class membership included one boy this year, the first in "shorthand history" at W.C.H.S. Mr. George Goodman teaches the commercial classes.

Physical Education and Health Classes Promote Physical Fitness

Students in 8th grade physical education are being given physical exercises by student helper, Sue Saunders, while Mrs. Elliott supervises.

Students in health education listen to a lecture on personal hygiene given by their instructor Mrs. Elliott.

Mr. Kell's 8th grade boys loosen up for team competition with a session of calisthentics.

Guidance Enables the Students to "Know Thyself"

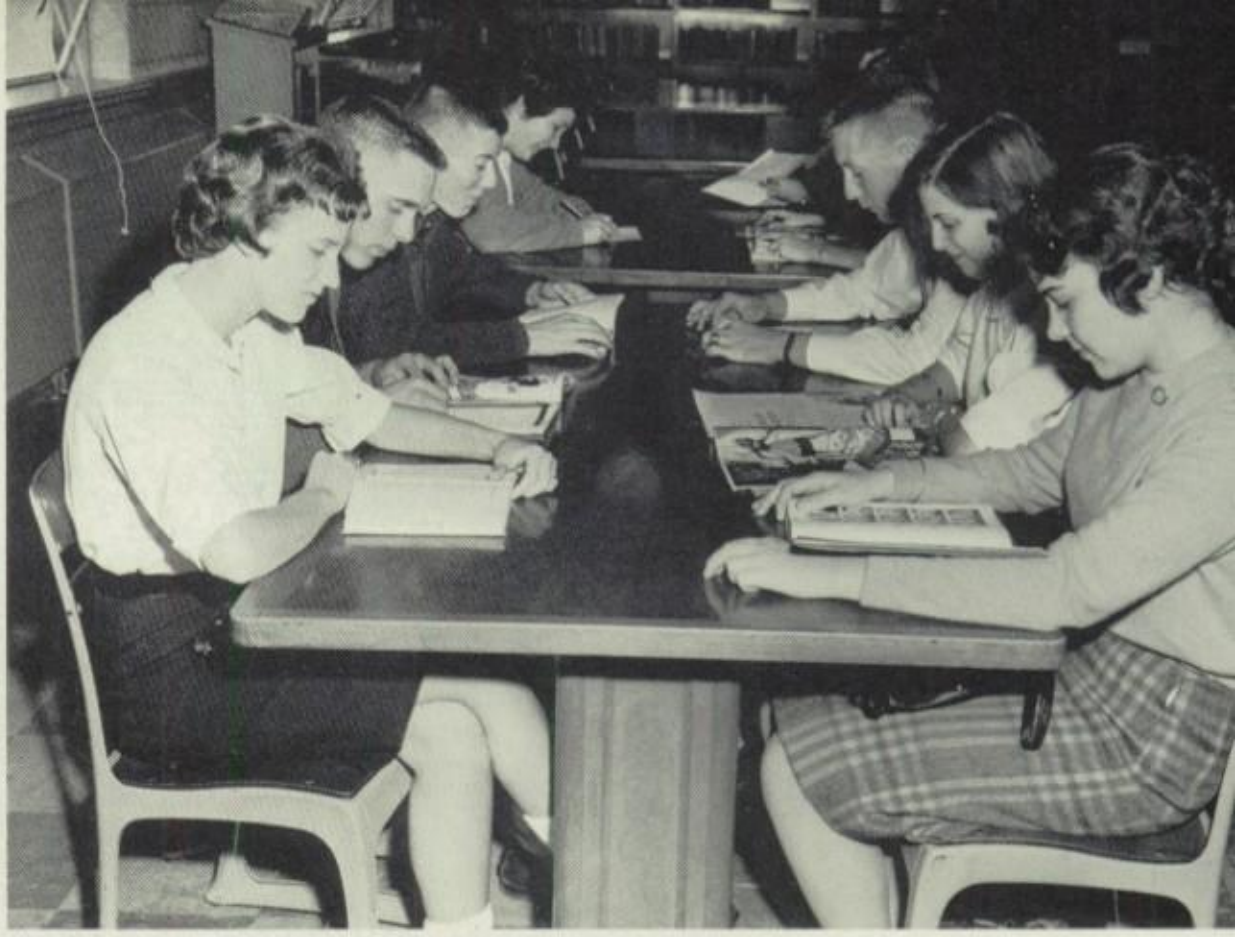
Mr. Strickler meets with the guidance committee and outlines a program of work in testing, counseling, scheduling, and providing occupational and educational information for all students in the school. Mrs. Betty Yount, Mrs. Pauline Marshall, Mr. J. E. Strickler (Principal), Mrs. Mary Maddox, and Mrs. Lucille Riegel.

Mrs. Mary Maddox interviews Mary Lee Marshall, a member of the junior class and helps her to understand herself and her opportunities to plan a schedule in harmony with her interests and abilities, and to accept the responsibility for her choice. Mrs. Maddox has 4 class periods for guidance work.

Mrs. Bettie Yount counsels a group of eighth grade students. (Carl Beauchamp, Carolyn Clark, Connie Marstin) in one of her classes of Science 8 which she teaches. Tests show which students should be encouraged to enter scientific work.

The Library — Helps in Research

William Campbell students have more than four thousand books available to supplement their classroom work. The library is open daily to teachers and students from 8:30 a.m. until 3:30 p.m. Twelve students assist in helping the librarian each day. The total circulation from September through December 1961 was 1664 volumes. Other materials provided by the library include audio-visual materials and a pamphlet file.



Library assistant Barbara Moon checks out a book to Sandra Mason while Gloria Neighbors and Miss Whitlow, the librarian, look on.

Study Hall

Some of the seniors catch up on "last night's homework" in first period study hall under Miss Waller.

S. C. A.—"Tomorrow Begins Today"—

STUDENT COUNCIL HOME ROOM REPRESENTATIVES

Kathryn Smith, Brenda Davis, Dianne Yates, Beverly Ware, Barbara Connelly, Dianne Williams, Bonnie Carey, Ann McDowell, Peggy Holland, Inez Hall.

Every year the Student Council sponsors Seventh Grade Day which acquaints the future pre-freshmen with the high school schedule.

Janice May and Scottie Carwile give the morning devotions over the public address system. The S.C.A. sponsors this by giving each home room a week to have charge of devotions during the year.

The Future Teachers of America Club is the high school section of the Virginia Education Association. Its purposes are as follows: to inform students about the teaching profession; to encourage the better students to choose teaching as a career; to give students experiences which will acquaint them with teaching.

Activities this year include having regular monthly meetings, participating in an assembly program, assisting elementary and high school teachers, observing teaching career month, preparing a bulletin board, and sponsoring representatives to the state convention.

Ann Tonkins, Mrs. Straw (Sponsor); Louise Ware, Linda Yount study the program for the F.T.A. State Convention which they attended in Richmond on December 8 and 9.

Future Leaders — Beta Club

The Beta Club strives to promote the building of character through supporting the ideals expressed in the school pledge - honesty, courtesy, self control, co-operation, and obedience to authority. The club's motto is "Ducamus Alius Serviendo" (Let us lead by serving others).

Betas sold candy and had a basketball game between the members of the faculty and the Beta Girls with women of the faculty and Beta Boys acting as cheerleaders for their respective teams. With the funds raised they financed their trip to the Beta Convention at Roanoke, Va. They also made a donation to Patrick Henry Boys Plantation and gave a picnic for the boys at the home at Red Hill.

Students must have an average of 90 or above for three years and must have good character and outstanding leadership qualities to become members of the Beta Club.

Mrs. Guthrie buys a bar of candy from Inez Hall and Tim Connelly to help support the Beta Club.

Frankie Ware, a former club member, who is studying to be a Spanish teacher, visited the Spanish classes in December as part of her student teaching. She told of various customs and traditions of the Spanish emphasizing those concerning their Christmas celebrations, fiestas, and other holidays. The club plans to have a fiesta in the spring, bringing in as many of the Spanish customs as possible.

The club also is responsible for a Spanish bulletin board during the year, contributes a column in the school newspaper each month.

Louise Ware and Carl Davis get practice taping their voices as they speak in Spanish.

First year students, Recie Bomar, Jimmy Scott, and Ann McDowell, present a Spanish dialogue in class. Ann: Oye, ¿ quién es ese chico?

Each year the Monogram Club sponsors a Homecoming Game and Dance in honor of our school alumni. The vote of the Monogram Club members determines the Homecoming Court. The king and queen are selected by those who attend the game.

This year the Homecoming Game was on December 15 when the WC Generals met and defeated Brosville to .

In the preliminary game the WC girls defeated Brosville 54 to 35. At half time of the final game Evelyn Elliott and Edward Kell (Coaches) crowned the king and queen.

After the game, a dance was held in the school cafeteria which had been previously decorated by members of the Monogram Club. The alumni, the visiting teams, the cheerleaders, and the faculty were guests. Refreshments were provided by the Monogram Club.

Linda,

I just don't know where to begin. Remember all the good times we've had together. All the times I have spent the night with you and all the things we done which we had no business doing.

Remember that night we were alone at home and Fred was trying to get mean side and broke the back door, and that night we caught Fred in the bathroom when we were in there.

How about that trip Donna, Beverly, Fred, You and I went on down in the woods. We all drank spring water and got sick. Out of school the next week. sick.

Hey remember the night we went to Gretna Skating and that boy gave me to die over.

Here's wishing the best of luck in the future to the sweetest girl I know.

Love ya.
